

the Yellowstone 1976

Rocky

Mountain College

As a tribute to the memories of this year, we proudly present --

The 1976 Yellowstone

The 1976 Yellowstone is proudly dedicated to our newly inaugurated fifth President of Rocky Mountain College -- Dr. Bruce T. Alton. We thank him for being a true leader -- but more than that, for being a friend!

In this city,
on this campus,
beneath the
rimrocks, we spent
a year.
It was a year that will become a part of us.
No matter where
we go,
each has changed or grown in a way that will affect our lives.

During the year we grew amid special people, events, and places. Each of us will cherish certain memories more than any other. We hope that the memories have been happy ones, but those that we wish to forget can be building stones for happiness.

Rocky
people...

... special
people!

Share a smile...

...and share your life!

W . . w . . w . . what?!!?

Rocky offers career opportunities in many new and unusual fields . . .

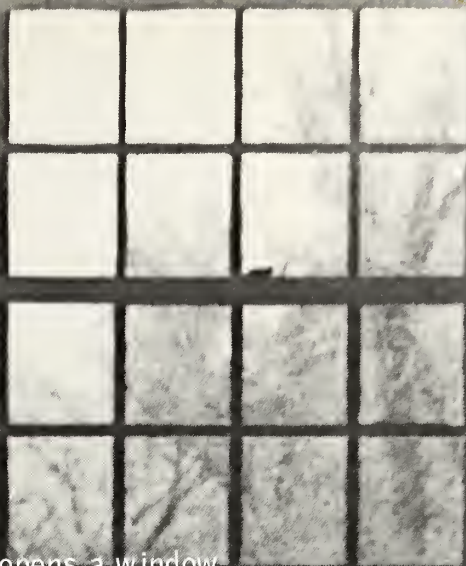

I know not whether our names will be immortal;
I am sure our friendship will.

--Walter Savage Landor

Ummm . . . Ummm . . .
Good!

Each beginning opens a window from which we look to see our future.

A black and white photograph of a path lined with trees, leading towards a car in the distance. The path is dappled with sunlight and shadows from the trees. The trees on the left are large and have thick trunks. The trees on the right are thinner and form a more uniform canopy. A car is visible at the end of the path in the distance.

Life is a journey,
not a destination.

SENIOR DRAMA RECITAL

April 23, 1976

The Rocky Mountain College Drama Department exists to provide a setting in which those who have chosen to investigate the Theatre Arts may find the freedom to experiment and the encouragement to learn.

Unlike community, regional, and commercial theatre, a college theatre department exists to encourage its students to reach for goals that are beyond their grasp, in order that these goals may ultimately be brought within their reach.

THE END

"For when the one Great Scorer comes,
to write against your name,
He writes not that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

--Grantland Rice

School Life

"You'll do foolish
things,
but do them with enthusiasm!"

"Given so much time,
the "impossible"
becomes possible,

the possible
becomes probable,

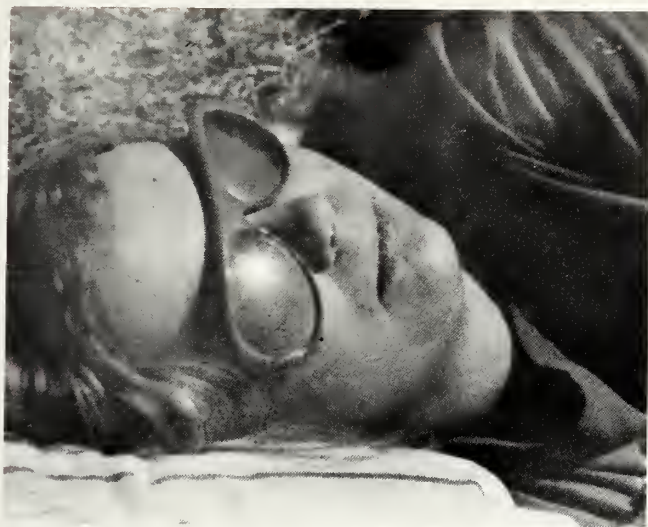

and the probable
virtually certain."

"Life today is exhilarating
only to those who welcome
its risks!"

"I should know myself
better,

if there were not so many of me."

Because we're different,
Each in opposite roles,
We learn from one another!

I want to be free
I want to dance with the wind
And float on the clouds.
Oh, I will fly!
See me soaring!

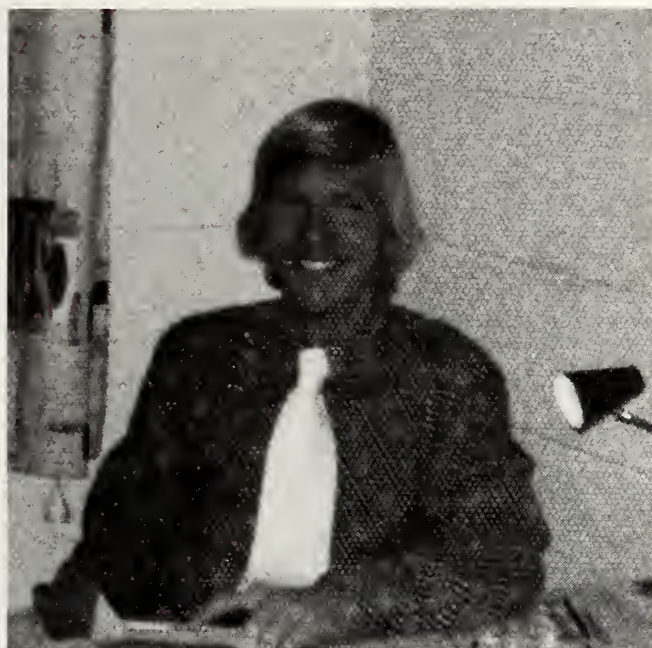

Rocky Fun...

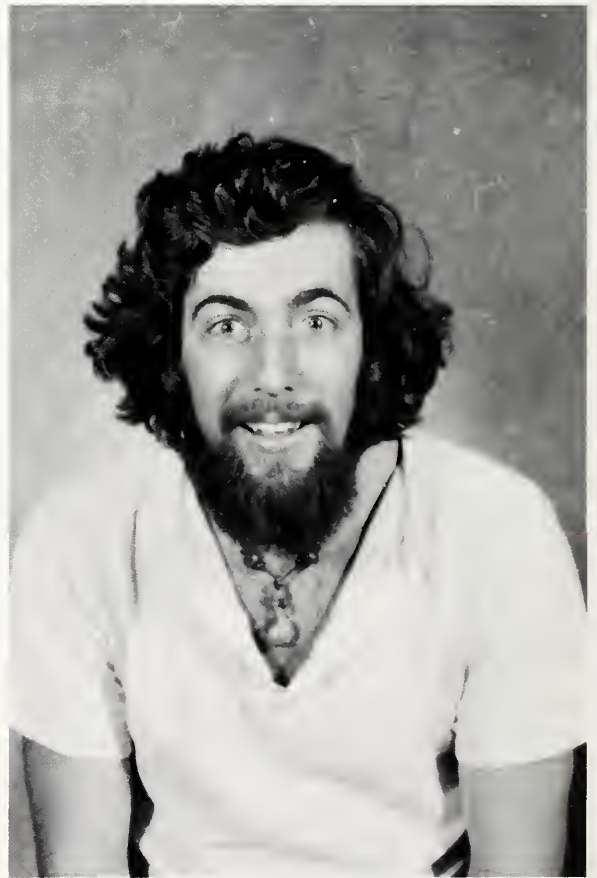

Rocky People...

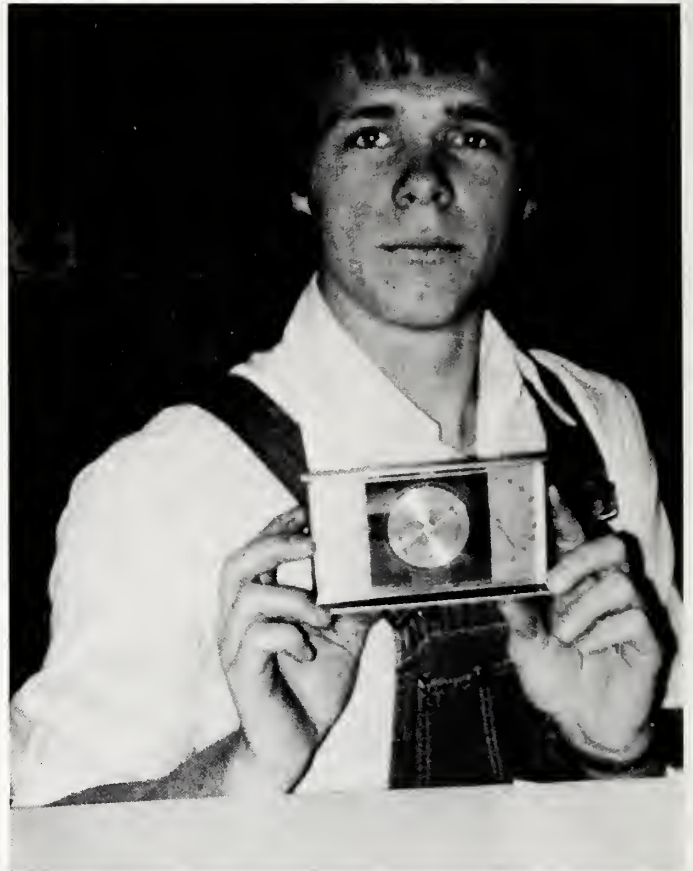

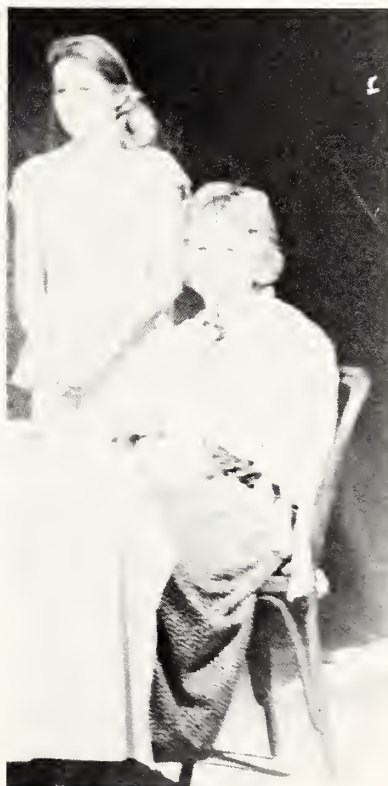

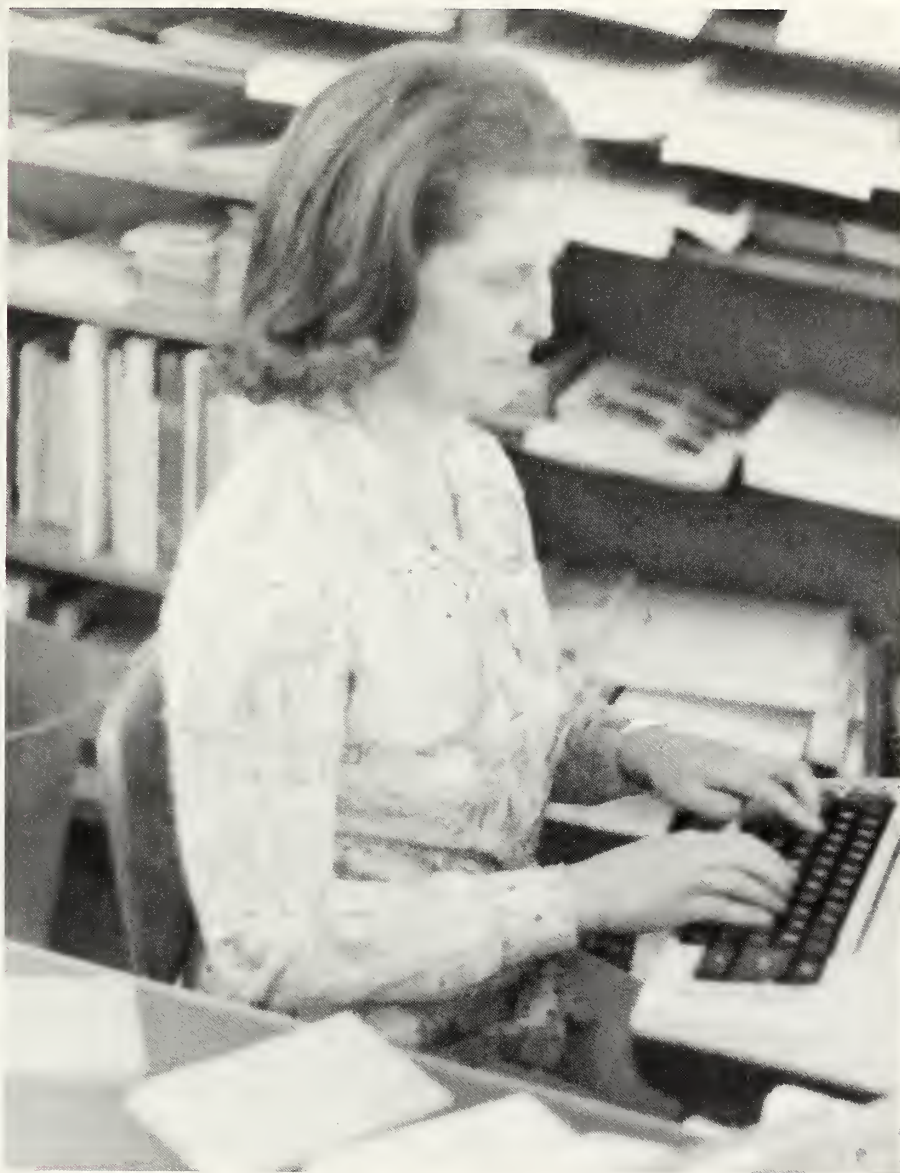

"I don't think I can take all this excitement!"

"Ever have 'one of those days'?"

Would Ya Believe . . .
Car
of the Year?!?

"Each moment of the year has its own beauty, and in the same field, it beholds, each hour, a picture which was never seen before and which shall never be seen again."

--Emerson

This is the Bicentennial year, and even though Rocky Mountain College represents only a small minority of all the people in these United States,
we find some of the ideas penned by our forefathers very fitting . . .

"We hold these truths to be self-evident,
that all men are created equal . . .

. . . that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness . . .

. . . That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed . . . "

and to everyone who put up with me constantly working on this thing-and who kept me going by always asking me if I'd finished the yearbook yet!

A faded, grayscale background image of a person climbing a mountain. The person is seen from the side, reaching up with one hand. The mountain is rocky and steep. The overall tone is nostalgic and reflective.

Close the book.

Forget the mountains you climbed, the rocks you stumbled on,
the joys and pains
of reaching for the top.

Close them all away in the pages of your mind, Place a binding on those pasts and mark them
"Memories"
Until they fade with time and age.

Then one day,
Open the book again
and find the you
of yesterday.
